

13th Annual White Privilege Conference ~ March 28–30, 2012

Albuquerque, New Mexico

Receive College Credit or CEUs for Participating in the White Privilege Conference!

Academic Credit in 4 Steps!

1. Register for the Course on the WPC website
2. Register for the Conference
3. Complete Required Background Readings
4. Complete Course Requirements

Credit is issued by the University of Colorado at Colorado Springs. Academic credit earned through UCCS may be transferred to other universities. Contact your academic advisor before enrolling if you have any questions about the transfer.

Courses are available for high school students, undergrads and grads. Students may register at the undergraduate level in either Women's and Ethnic Studies or Curriculum and Instruction; at the graduate level the course is offered through Sociology or Curriculum and Instruction.

UNIVERSITY OF COLORADO
AT COLORADO SPRINGS

Continuing Education Credit for Counselors, Social Workers, Teachers and Others...

The WPC has been approved to provide CEU's through the following boards and educational institutions: Counselors: National Board of Certified Counselors through the University of Colorado at Colorado Springs Social Workers: National Association of Social Workers through the School of Social Work at the University of Denver

Participants can sign up and pay one of two ways: (1) conference registration form or (2) on-site. Fees: $30/day up to 8 hours per day.

Registration instructions, cost, course syllabi and more info at:
www.whiteprivilegeconference.org or call 719-255-4764